THE CHRONICLE

DANVILLE JUNIOR COLLEGE
Danville, Illinois
Volume 3

Preface

One of the first ideas we are taught upon entering Danville Junior College is that the decision is ours. As the end of the year approaches, we, the editors of The Chronicle, trust you have found what you have been looking for in this institution of higher learning. We hope you have accumulated a richer supply of knowledge, gained from the help of friendly instructors, and attained a better understanding for humanity. This, Volume 3 of The Chronicle, indicates the road you have taken among the ivory covered columns of knowledge.

The Editors

Ever-Young Old Timers

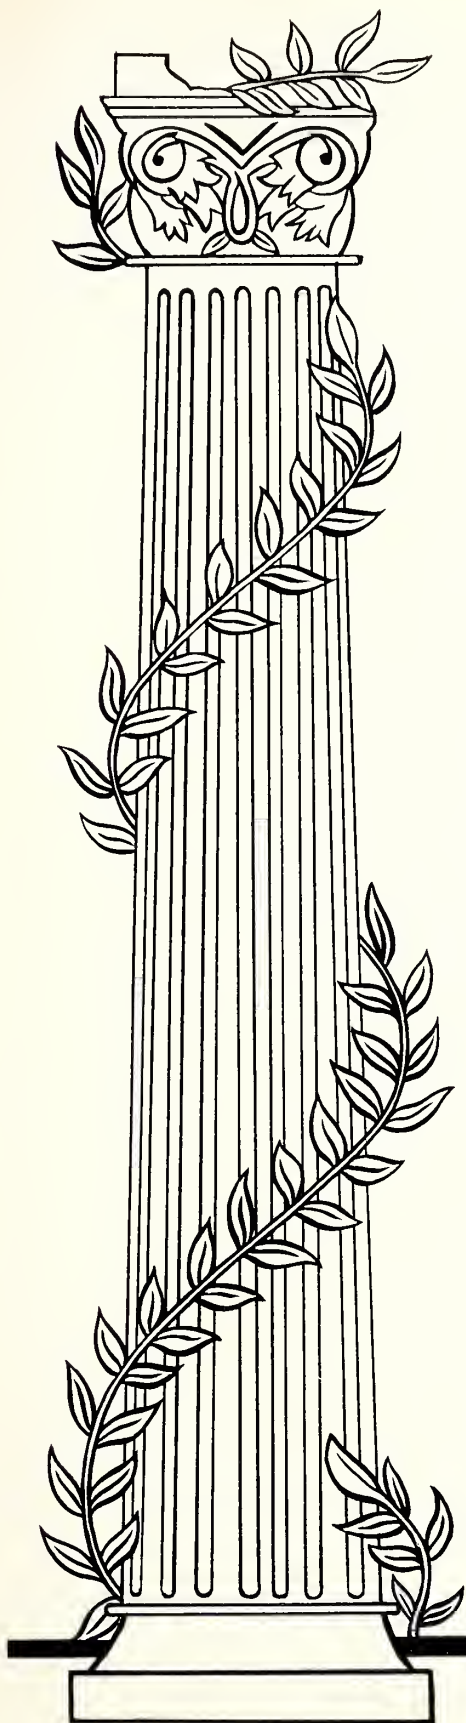

Looking back three years, we find there was no Chronicle. Even more noteworthy, we find that Danville Junior College had a full-time staff of only four members aiding Dean Mary Miller. Miss Mary Ann Diller, Social Studies Chairman, is the senior full-time member of our teaching staff. Mrs. Alice Lee Morrison, Humanities Chairman, next joined this group that has done so much toward making D. J. C. what it is today and may be tomorrow. Later Mrs. Mary Ellen Schaff, Mathematics Chairman, and Mrs. Annabelle Neel, Registrar and Secretary, joined this group that saw potential for higher education in Danville. Inadequately we give you a picture of the "ever-young old timers."

ADMINISTRATION

Superintendent
David Radcliffe

Superintendents and Secretaries

Mr. Conan S. Edwards resigned as superintendent October 1, 1964, to accept a school position at Madison, Wisconsin. Mr. David Radcliffe was appointed as Superintendent February 19, 1965, after serving as acting superintendent. Pictured, left to right, are Miss Millie Linn, secretary for Mr. Edwards; Mrs. Geneva Rook, secretary for Superintendent Radcliffe; Mr. Edwards; and Superintendent Radcliffe.

Board of Education

Clockwise: Mr. Maurice Hayes, business director; Mr. Louis Mervis; Mrs. Madeline Skoog; Mr. James Righter; Mr. Ralph Swanson, president of the board; Mrs. Lillian Pearson, secretary; Mr. Arthur Fleming; Mr. Walter Glavey; Mr. Elmer Colby; Mr. Wayne Denman, director of instruction; Mr. David Radcliffe, superintendent.

Dean Mary Miller

Dean Miller, who received her A.B. and M.A. degrees at the University of Illinois, is a playwright, and has received many educational and administrative honors. At present we are most grateful to her for all she is doing in obtaining and preparing our new seven-building campus.

Administrative Council

The Counselors Four

Electronic Data Processing

In the "white house office" Mrs. Mildred Mills, Secretary, and Mr. Melvin Milgate, E.D.P. Director, review an E.D.P. manual.

Business Sextet

Arlene Neel, Student Assistant; Mrs. Annabelle Neel, Mrs. Sue Mills, Office Secretary

Practical Nursing Classes

Teachers of Practical Nursing: Standing; Betty Stuebe, Ruth Edwards, Hazel LeCount, Dorothy Harwood. Seated; Mildred Bennett, Director.

Roberta Umphreyes is the guinea pig as Mrs. Bennett demonstrates first aid.

Mrs. Harwood shows her Class III how to take blood pressure on a student volunteer, Barbara Chrostowski.

Adult Education

Mr. Burmeister demonstrates as his beginning Welding class observes.

Mrs. Fink is the instructor of the Adult Education Math class.

Classes

Mrs. Dries demonstrates flower arranging to her adult education class.

Mr. Stickler instructs his adult education class in Beginning Machine Shop.

"It's here," "It's there," "No, it's here," argue LaVada Thornton, Instructor Diller, and Dick Hird.

"Double, double, toil and trouble." Mrs. Schaff looks worried as Tom Vance and Gary Smith proceed to destroy the lab.

"Please, Mr. Alvey, $2 + 2$ does not equal 5," says Instructor Farrell.

Classes

Librarian Zelinsky places his new shipment of books on the shelves as Pam Sanders quietly studies.

"I wanta hold your hand," Ann Deeken and Larry Bassett examine the hand structure of Dr. Gordon's skeleton in the closet.

"It only hurts for a little while" -- Jim Hathaway and Bob Davison explain as they dock the toy black sheep. Mr. Howe's Speech 100.

Classes

These are pushy people, buttons that is! The pushy pals are Instructor Kistler, Lyle Moody, Ken Davis, Gary Hughes and Stephanie Mumm.

"Very good, Miss Helck," says Instructor Theobald as Don Brown observes operation of the 1620 Computer.

Peggy Muster and Instructor Bettag stand proudly by an IBM Sorter.

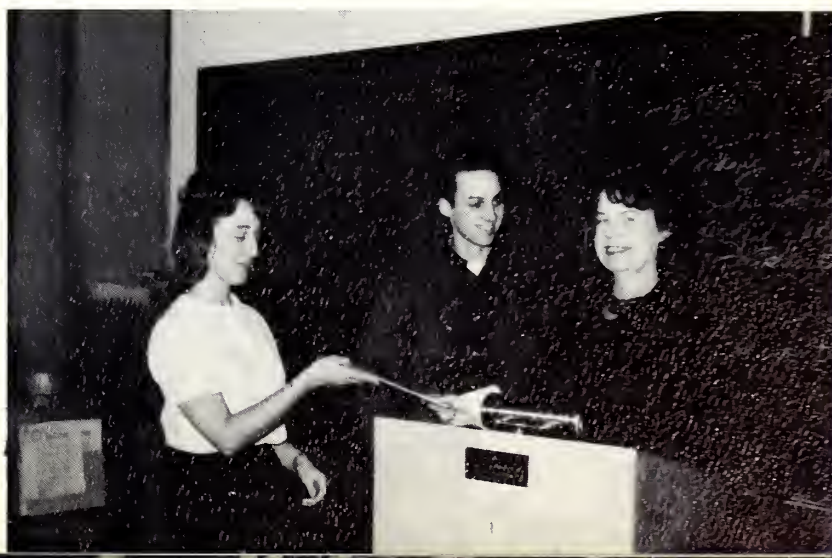

Mike Denny and Dick Spicer get a sneak peak at Mr. Lynch's grade book. "You gotta be kidding, Mr. Lynch!"

Classes

Beverly Gentis is loaded down and ready to go home and get her history assignments. Is she asking to borrow Mr. Evemeyer's briefcase?

This must have been a good set of themes, so Pam Sanders shouldn't be worrying. Both Larry Schultz and Mrs. Morrison indicate that the results were glowing.

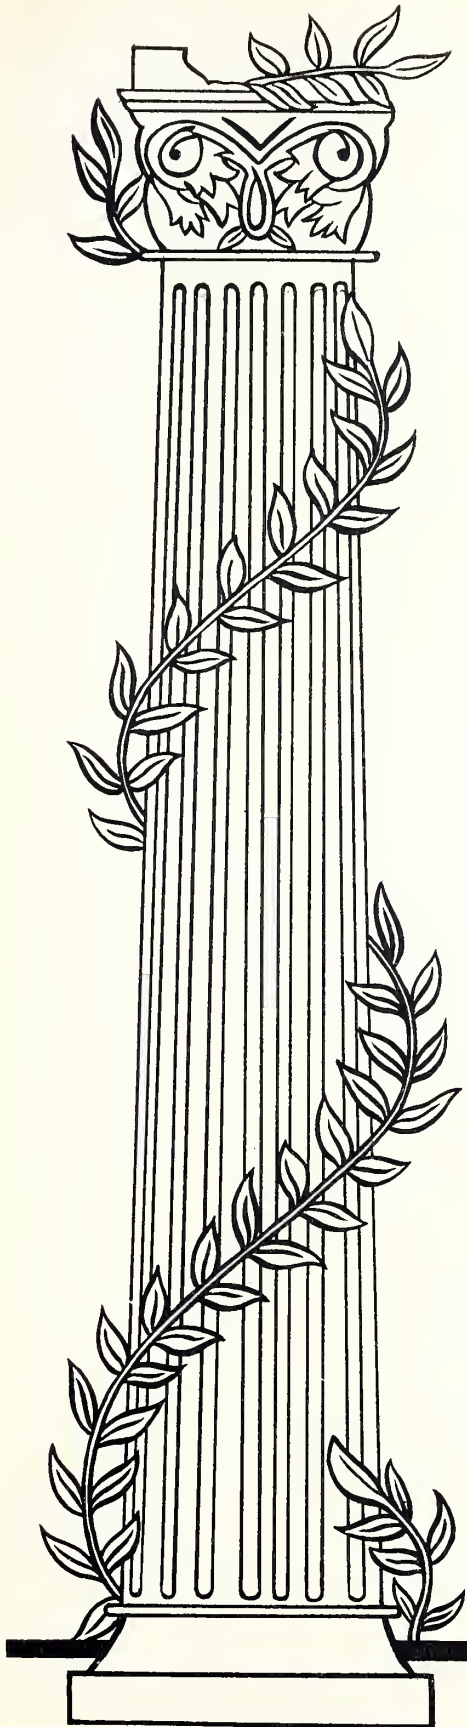

"What's that on the floor," say Mr. Purkey's speech class as they bend for fluency and emphasis.

Classes

"It's all Spanish to me," says Jim Crain in Language Lab, as Instructor Sturm, Judy Chamberlin, and Instructor Hofmann wait for the message.

FALL, 1964, LETTERMEN--Seven students merited letters for academic performance during the first semester of this year. To become a Letterman a student must have a 5.0 for one semester, a 4.75 for two, a 4.5 for three, or a 4.35 for four semesters. For part-time students, twelve hours is considered a semester's work. Students pictured here are Vic Morrison and John Ewing, standing, and seated Larry Gutterridge and Nancy Sherrill.

ACTIVITIES

Convocations

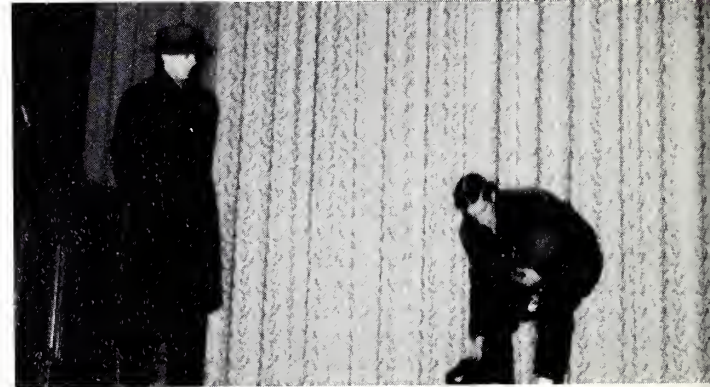

"A Day in the Life of Nancy O'Clary, or "She Wrote It in Her Chronicle" was a smash success! Included in the epic were, from left, Leland DeVors, Steve Pickett (Tattler villain), Bob Hageman (Chronicle hero), Nancy Clary, Sue Borrer, Anne Tweedy Davis, Carol Pettigrew, and Steve Divan. The skit was directed by Ken Leisch.

Enumerating the "new beat" for the Fall Dance were committee members Fred Shaffer (guitar, I think), Janice Helck, Jim Linder (go man!), Nancy Clary, and Mike Scott.

The Tattler produced a "newsworthy" utilizing many avid news correspondents. Here Russian Correspondent Jim Linder is interviewing "Nikita Scott." Is this what you call pounding a beat?

This year The Beanie was a must for all freshmen students. Proclaiming the decree from Dean Miller is Bill Moran. As committee members listened intently, King Bill Welsh and Queen Stephanie Mumm give their nods of approval.

STUDENTS RAISE MONEY FOR D.J.C. BUILDING FUND: Lana Wright was amazed at the weight she had gained as Tom Farlow (with his heavy foot) weighed her in to pay a penny a pound. TO THE RIGHT; Joe McGlaughlin reads Terry Baer's weight to the audience after making sure his foot was in place!

Convocations

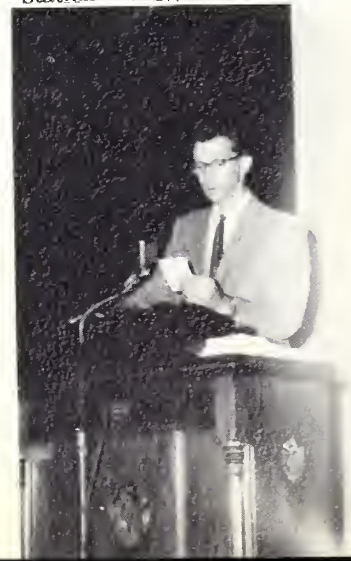

Dr. Preston Tuttle, University of Illinois professor, read excerpts from Shakespeare.

Miss Frances Watkins, of D.H.S., extended an invitation to join the newly formed D.J.C. Alumni Association (in the near future).

The importance of communication was the subject of the address given by Mr. John Eckert, announcer for Station WDAN.

PARIS--What are pilots Leonard Hathaway and Kemp Berbaum and French guide, Bob VanZandt, looking at? Could it be the chorus line at the Moulin Rouge? They are Lana Wright, Anita Ward, Arlene Neel, Jill Shaffer, Luann Long, and Elizabeth Mominee.
